

Thanks to all,

I didn't think that I would be writing a farewell so soon. It seems that I just was installed as Rector of the Cathedral yesterday and I thought that it would be my final move until I retired. But my way is obviously not God's, so I leave this week for the faithful in Airdrie. What a pleasure it has been for me to be with all of you. You have fed me in my faith through your love and support. For that I am forever grateful. I hope that I have fed you as well. You people really are the best. As you know I am a big Stewardship supporter, and you came through with such a great force, giving of your time, your talents and your treasure. I never had to ask twice for anything. Know that you are an example to the whole diocese and great witnesses to what the Cathedral should be. Please keep me in your prayers as I will always keep you in mine. If you are ever in Airdrie, please stop by and say hello. I always love to see old friends. May God bless you all very specially. May He protect you from all evil and bring you all to everlasting life.

Your Friend and Rector

Mr. Bob
